

DEVNET 2020 PROGRAMME | PROVISIONAL

Day 1 – Wednesday 2 December

08.30	Mihi whakatau - Welcome
09.00	Keynote Kitty van der Heijden Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Netherlands Green recovery and how that should influence aid and development efforts also in relation to SDGs Respondent: Jonathan Kings Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Trade, New Zealand Chair: Regina Scheyvens Te Kunenga ki Pūrehuroa / Massey University
10.00	Morning tea
10.30	Concurrent sessions 1
10.30 – 12.00	CS1.1 Interrogating partnerships in development between the Global North and South Chairs: Jesse Grayman & Yuko Nagamine The University of Auckland <table> <tr> <td>Jesse Grayman</td> <td>The reconstitution of civil society in post-tsunami / post-conflict Aceh, Indonesia</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Cynthia Ecclestone</td> <td>Beyond the rhetoric: participatory practices and power dynamics in West Timor, Indonesia</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Arisarawan Tanasinsiri</td> <td>“We aren’t here to change you but...”: Thailand-New Zealand’s Dairy Development Partnership</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Caitlin Finlayson</td> <td>INGOs and postdevelopment: a way forward?</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Mike Sansom</td> <td>INGOs in Aotearoa: An existential crisis?</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Yuko Nagamine</td> <td>The Burmese Diaspora’s transnational development practices and engagements with Japanese civil society</td> </tr> </table>	Jesse Grayman	The reconstitution of civil society in post-tsunami / post-conflict Aceh, Indonesia	Cynthia Ecclestone	Beyond the rhetoric: participatory practices and power dynamics in West Timor, Indonesia	Arisarawan Tanasinsiri	“We aren’t here to change you but...”: Thailand-New Zealand’s Dairy Development Partnership	Caitlin Finlayson	INGOs and postdevelopment: a way forward?	Mike Sansom	INGOs in Aotearoa: An existential crisis?	Yuko Nagamine	The Burmese Diaspora’s transnational development practices and engagements with Japanese civil society
Jesse Grayman	The reconstitution of civil society in post-tsunami / post-conflict Aceh, Indonesia
Cynthia Ecclestone	Beyond the rhetoric: participatory practices and power dynamics in West Timor, Indonesia
Arisarawan Tanasinsiri	“We aren’t here to change you but...”: Thailand-New Zealand’s Dairy Development Partnership
Caitlin Finlayson	INGOs and postdevelopment: a way forward?
Mike Sansom	INGOs in Aotearoa: An existential crisis?
Yuko Nagamine	The Burmese Diaspora’s transnational development practices and engagements with Japanese civil society
10.30 – 12.00	CS1.2 SDGs: Opportunities and challenges? Chair: Maria Borovnik Te Kunenga ki Pūrehuroa / Massey University <table> <tr> <td>Kate Brown</td> <td>Islands supporting islands - catalysing partnerships for the SDGs</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Natalia Szablewska</td> <td>Breaking the chains: Modern slavery and sustainable development goals</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Gebeyaw Degarege</td> <td>Sustainable food tourism through sustainable consumption and production lenses: a systematic literature review</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Toni Grace</td> <td>Think global, act local – SDGs as a common framework for city action</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Atishwar Pandaram</td> <td>Sustainability disclosure. Social and environmental accounting: implications for Sustainable Development Goals</td> </tr> </table>	Kate Brown	Islands supporting islands - catalysing partnerships for the SDGs	Natalia Szablewska	Breaking the chains: Modern slavery and sustainable development goals	Gebeyaw Degarege	Sustainable food tourism through sustainable consumption and production lenses: a systematic literature review	Toni Grace	Think global, act local – SDGs as a common framework for city action	Atishwar Pandaram	Sustainability disclosure. Social and environmental accounting: implications for Sustainable Development Goals
Kate Brown	Islands supporting islands - catalysing partnerships for the SDGs
Natalia Szablewska	Breaking the chains: Modern slavery and sustainable development goals
Gebeyaw Degarege	Sustainable food tourism through sustainable consumption and production lenses: a systematic literature review
Toni Grace	Think global, act local – SDGs as a common framework for city action
Atishwar Pandaram	Sustainability disclosure. Social and environmental accounting: implications for Sustainable Development Goals

	Endah Retnoastuti	The role of parliament in advancing development through SDG 17: A case study of Indonesia
10.30 – 12.00	CS1.3 Inclusive development
	Chair: Phil Brass CARITAS
	Marty Pritchard	Community based inclusive development: A practitioner approach to reach persons with disabilities
	Karen Jack	Is COVID-19 pointing us toward more inclusive ways of doing development?
	Vicky Walters	The unfree labour of sweepers and manual scavengers in India
	Febry Suharto	Addressing barriers faced by former Refugees with Disabilities to accessing their needs in Palmerston North
	Lauren Innes-Hill	Queer(y)ing resettlement in Aotearoa: an inquiry into family reunification pathway reform for former refugees
10.30 – 12.00	CS1.4 Social justice and human rights through tourism
	Chair: Anne Hardy University of Tasmania
	Tazim Jamal	Weaving land and people together in macro-micro perspectives on social justice and tourism
	Joseph Cheer	Social Licence and Tourism: A Critical Development Heuristic
	Denis Tolkach	Dependency theory as a lens for social justice studies in tourism
	Can-Seng Ooi	Ethics, social justice, and tourism: Moral limits of the market
	Sonya Graci	The sustainable livelihood approach to indigenous tourism development in Canada
	Tamara Young & Erica Wilson	When Travel Kills: The role of COVID in disrupting the 'right' to travel
	Paresh Pant	Aviation in the South Pacific: Geopolitics, sustainable development, and social justice
	Anne Hardy & Oscar Vorobjovas-Pinta	Why tourists do and don't care about torture: An investigation into perceptions of human rights abuses
12.00	Lunch
13.00	Plenary session: 3MAP (3-minute aid pitch)
	Chair: Warwick Murray Victoria University of Wellington
	Darren Brunk	Oxfam
	Suliasi Vunibola	Te Kunenga ki Pūrehuroa / Massey University
	Aaron Davy	Council for International Development
	Akisi Ravono	Te Kunenga ki Pūrehuroa / Massey University
	Molly Harriss Olson	Fair Trade ANZ

Hannah Steven	Te Kunenga ki Pūrehuroa / Massey University
Susan Mavaia	Fair&good
Jeremy Hapeta	Te Kunenga ki Pūrehuroa / Massey University
Penelope Schoeffel	National University of Samoa
14:00	Concurrent sessions 2
14.00 – 15.15	CS2.1 Confessions of a development practitioner
	Chair: Gaia Maridati Te Kunenga ki Pūrehuroa / Massey University
Aaron James Davy	The sin of practitioner joylessness in the aid sector
Jessica Smith	Development happens over there: but what does it mean in our own context?
Jeph Mathias	The practitioner as a storyteller
Chana Nurhasanudin	Technology-based approach in isolated areas: Does it work?
14.00 – 15.15	CS2.2 Student Session 1
	Chair: Samantha Leonard Te Kunenga ki Pūrehuroa / Massey University
Emma Coombe	Beyond the stigma: exploring impacts of mental health advocacy in Nepal, an NGO case study
Jane Lohrey	Focus on HPV in Fiji: exploring the success of the HPV vaccination programme in Fiji
Lisa Moir	Exploring the relationship between epidemics, narratives, health policy and the exacerbation of gender inequality
Edinam Dope Setsoafia	Measuring food security in northern Ghana. A comparison of food security indicators
Sarah Nelson	Changes of collaboration, communication, coordination during a disease outbreak: the experience of Fiji
Saumya Kaushik	Disability inclusion in the built environment at the community level how?
14.00 – 15.15	CS2.3 Climate change challenges
	Chair: Karen Hytten Te Kunenga ki Pūrehuroa / Massey University
Smriti Talwar	Culturally mediated perceptions of climate change risks
Karen Hytten	Exploring the social construction of vulnerability within the Australian climate change debate
Dora Kuir-Ayius	Impact of climate change on food, water land on Wewak Islands: Studies on Wallis Tarawai
Sajal Natalia Roy	Climate change mitigation and adaptation in Bangladesh: the need for community-based approaches

Dorcas Shumba	Inclusive growth through risk sharing: examining risk transfer mechanisms for climate change among rural farmers
14.00 – 15.15	CS2.4 A feminist aid policy in Aotearoa NZ?
	Chair: Angela Wilton The University of Auckland
Arama Rata	New Zealand Alternative
Tina Ngata	Independent researcher
Evelyn Marsters	New Zealand Alternative
Emalani Case
15.15	Afternoon tea
15.45 – 17.00	Concurrent sessions 3
15.45 – 17.00	CS3.1 Geopolitics and international development cooperation
	Chair: Jo Spratt OXFAM
Warwick Murray	Futures for aid?
Edward Kapi	Ownership, decentralization, and development in Papua New Guinea: Sub national participation in aid effectiveness
Sarah MacCana	Trilateral cooperation: an opportunity in the time of Coronavirus?
Imran Muhammad	Local perspective of China-Pakistan Economic Corridor (CPEC)
Muhammad Waqar Anwar	Security implications of transnational development initiatives
15.45 – 17.00	CS3.2 Student Session 2
	Chair: Samantha Leonard Massey University
Kim Andreas Kessler	Community-based development in times of climate change: insights from Fiji outer islands
Sargam Goundar	Local perceptions of climate-related migration impacts on the development of Fiji as a receiving country
Emma-Yvonne Simons	Advocating for radical futures in our radical present: the climate justice movement in Aotearoa
Shashini Ranabahu	The relationship between climate change and transport: a systematic literature review of Sri Lanka
Wahyu Triwahyudi	The state of youth participation in rural climate change adaptation in Indonesia
Hare Krisna Kundo	Vulnerabilities and resilience to climate change of a southwestern coastal sub-district in Bangladesh

15.45 – 17.00	CS3.3 Sport for Development
Chair: Rochelle Stewart-Withers & Jeremy Hapeta Te Kunenga ki Pūrehuroa / Massey University
Rochelle Stewart-Withers	Mauri Mahi, Mauri Ora: Measuring success - indigenous understandings of M&E in SFD
Jeph Mathias	Participatory Outcome Harvesting - Sports for Development, Indonesia
Shawn Forde	Historic and modern understandings of sport, development and (re)conciliation in settler-colonial societies
Yasmin Rajwani	Canadian NSOs' Responses to the Truth and Reconciliation Commission: Calls to action and settler silence
Dinnia Joedadibrata	WASH project in response to COVID-19 - Mentawai Island, West Sumatra, Indonesia
15.45 – 17.00	CS3.4 Gender in Emergencies
Chair: Darren Brunk OXFAM
Kate Bradlow	MFAT
Anna Bryan	CARE International
Catherine Belfield-Haines	World Vision NZ
Tara D'Souza	MFAT
Aaron James Davy	Council for International Development
17.00 – 18.30	Networking reception

Day 2 – Thursday 3 December

09:00 - 10.15

Concurrent sessions 4

09:00 - 10.15 CS4.1 Health security

Chair: Helen Leslie | MFAT

Sharon McLennan	Building capacity in health care: the challenges of Cuban medical cooperation in the Pacific
Cristine Werle	The gift of health: Cuban medical cooperation in Kiribati
Ramona Boodoosingh	The social and institutional contexts of Samoa's 2019-2020 measles epidemic and the lessons learned
Benjamin Harding	Unanswered questions from the 2019 measles epidemic in Samoa
Erin Stieler	Studying abroad during a pandemic: challenges and resilience among international students

09:00 - 10.15 CS4.2 Student Session 3

Chair: Samantha Leonard | Te Kunenga ki Pūrehuroa / Massey University

Moayad Shammut	Social mobilities: meanings, feelings and perceptions about driverless cars in New Zealand
Xinning Wang	Social partnership in transportation and urban development projects in China
Jan Shapcott	Slavery / human trafficking in New Zealand, and health professionals' role in detecting victims
Kathleen Vatuvei	Beyond access
Phuong Nguyen	Engaging with the private sector for ethnic minority women's economic empowerment in Vietnam
Victoria Moyle	Exploring whether development English programmes provide women with improved financial security
Laura Quinteros Nogales	Energy access for development: Exploring the discourse underpinning Bolivia's rural energy policy

09:00 - 10.15 CS 4.3 Decolonising Research Talanoa

Chair: Maria Borovnik | Te Kunenga ki Pūrehuroa / Massey University & Litea Meosewabu | The University of the South Pacific

Maria Borovnik	Te Kunenga ki Pūrehuroa / Massey University
Litea Meosewabu	The University of the South Pacific
Siautu Alefaio-Tugia	Te Kunenga ki Pūrehuroa / Massey University
Tracie Mafile'o	Te Kunenga ki Pūrehuroa / Massey University
Farah Palmer	Te Kunenga ki Pūrehuroa / Massey University

Jason Mika	Te Kunenga ki Pūrehuroa / Massey University
Meleisea Leasiolagi	National University of Samoa
Malama Meleisea
09:00 - 10.15	CS4.4 Fostering a method of hope in development
	Facilitators: Alice Beban, Vicky Walters Te Kunenga ki Pūrehuroa / Massey University & Phil Brass CARITAS
10.15	Morning tea
10.30	Keynote Ralph Regenvanu Leader of the Opposition, Vanuatu
	Development partners: what role should they play in the Pacific?
	Chair: Api Movono Te Kunenga ki Pūrehuroa / Massey University
11.45	Lunch
12.45	Plenary session: Pacific voices - Amplifying Pacific voices and building resilience: A world in disorder?
	Chair: Gordon Nanau The University of the South Pacific
	Facilitator: Stanley Simpson MaiTV
	Apolonia Tamata The University of the South Pacific
	Ernest Gibson UN Youth Advisory Group on Climate Change.
	Junior Ulu Pacific Koloa Collective
	Shashi Kiran FRIEND FIJI
13:45 – 15.15	Concurrent sessions 5
13:45 – 15.15	CS 5.1 Responding to COVID-19 in the Pacific: Doing development differently
	Chair: Rochelle Stewart-Withers Te Kunenga ki Pūrehuroa / Massey University
	Apisalome Movono Adapting and reacting to COVID-19: tourism & communal responses from the South Pacific
	Suliasi Vunibola Two case studies from Fiji showing indigenous community responses to COVID-19
	Stephanie Fry Doing development differently: The role of the church in Polynesia's COVID-19 response.
	Alexandra Hill Responding to COVID-19: Experiences of alumni from Unionaid's young leaders programmes
	Rochelle Bailey COVID-19 lockdown: impacts on pacific seasonal workers' health and wellbeing in Australia and New Zealand

13:45 – 15.15 CS 5.2 Mobility justice, climate mobility and planned relocationChair: Andreas Neef | The University of Auckland

Doug Hill	Returning to the rural: COVID-induced migration and its policy implications for India
Fara Arrasya	Planned relocation in a sinking capital: Jakarta's riverbank kampung resettlement
Ratanakvisal Chean	A new perspective of understanding climate mobility in South East Asia
Olivia Yates	The psychosocial impacts of Pacific climate-related mobility to Aotearoa
Andreas Neef	Towards a climate mobility justice framework

13:45 – 15.15 CS5.3 Addressing inequality in academic knowledge productionChair: Ramona Boodoosingh | National University of Samoa

Roberta Mura	Scientific research and its limitations in a Pacific island
Saunimaa Aiolupotea	Development opportunities from translating the pelvic organ prolapse symptom score into Samoan
Mesulame Tora	Whakapuputia mai o mānuka. Kia kore ai te whati
Gerard Prinsen	Personal is political: echoes of colonialism and sounds of co-creation in relationships for knowledge creation
Suzanne Paisley	Rising tides lift all boats: a case study in Pacific knowledge production

13:45 – 15.15 CS 5.4 The heart of Indigenous tourismChair: Api Movono & Bronwyn Hutchinson | Te Kunenga ki Pūrehuroa / Massey University

Bronwyn Hutchinson	Post-COVID-19 tourism: why indigenous peoples must be central to the conversation
Jason Mika	How Māori tourism along the Whanganui river contributes to local aspirations of indigenous development
Gabrielle Verheyen	The heart of indigenous tourism: challenges and opportunities for indigenous youth
Patricia Bibi	Tourism, indigenous women, and empowerment: a case study of Taveuni, Fiji
Ilisapeci Matatolu	Tourism and QOL in Fiji: a case study of a rural Fijian village

15.15

Afternoon tea15.45 – 17.00*Concurrent sessions 6

15.45 – 17.00	CS6.1 Tourism resilience and realities in times of crisis
Chair: Heidi van der Watt Te Kunenga ki Pūrehuroa / Massey University
Regina Scheyvens	Diverse impacts of COVID19 on the wellbeing of tourism destination communities in the Pacific
Emma Hughes	Tourism partnerships: localising the SDG agenda in Fiji
Dawn Gibson	Perceptions of the importance of GESI-wash practices in the Fiji tourism sector post COVID-19
Sunil Kumar	Exploring the impact of COVID-19 on the tourism industry of Fiji, Samoa, and Solomon Islands
Bartomeu Deya	Responsible tourism in a rural cultural landscape. Resilience and traditional values
15.45 – 17.00	CS6.2 Student Session 4
Chair: Samantha Leonard Te Kunenga ki Pūrehuroa / Massey University
Rafa Itchon	Thinking through the Pluriverse
Erin Thomas	Gender-based Violence in Niue: Challenges and opportunities in small Pacific Islands
Cathy Bolinga	Melanesian Development Perspective: Framework for analysing relationships in social goods delivery by philanthropies in PNG
Marcus Coll	The benefits of a narrative approach to civil society research
Ambrose Malefoasi	The Education Authorities in the Solomon Islands
Eduardo Castro	The effects of voluntary substitution programmes on the livelihoods of coca-growing communities in Colombia: An analysis based on participatory approaches to development
15.45 – 17.00	CS6.2 Pacific livelihoods
Chair: Suliasi Vunibola Te Kunenga ki Pūrehuroa / Massey University
James Kwaimani Faiau	Oli'aena guri'ai – 'estate' conception of development: a case study from the Solomon Islands
Gordon Nanau	Reconfiguring development models on customary land in Solomon Islands
Sevanaia Sakai	The development implications of Itaukei perceptions of native land policy in Narewa village, Fiji
Brian Alofaiali	Taxing clergyman in Samoa: Development or sin?
Anita Latai Niusulu	Climate change and mobility in Samoa

15.45 – 17.00 CS6.4 Health and developmentChair: Sharron McLennan | Te Kunenga ki Pūrehuroa / Massey University

Michaela Harris	The infant feeding experience: Global policy in local contexts
Anna Ravendan	Knowledge, access, and barriers to family planning in rural Vanuatu
Katheryn Margaret Pascoe	LoveMatters Kenya: opportunities and limitations using virtual speaker platforms for enhancing universal sexual reproductive health rights
Endah Setyaningsih	The impact of COVID-19 on isolated communities in Indonesia, and what's next?
Vunny Wijaya	Researcher of social affairs at TII

19:00 – 22:00 Conference dinner

Day 3 – Friday 4 December

09.00	Keynote Chris Roche La Trobe University, Australia Developmental Leadership in an Uncertain World Chair: Hennah Steven Massey University
10.00	Morning tea
10.30 - 12.00	Concurrent sessions 7
10.30 - 12.00	CS7.1 Localisation of development Chair: Doug Hill University of Otago
	Glenn Bond	Localisation and legitimacy for international NGOs
	Elise James	Localisation pain points: Confessions of consultants
	Karen Jack	Inclusive eye care in Papua New Guinea: an experience of localisation
	Elisabeth Poppelwell	How two pacific countries apply their values and practices to governing SOEs
	Madeleine Pears & Jordana Dawson Hayes	Lessons in lifting Asia Pacific Ombudsman ship
	Ross Westoby	Improved adaptation outcomes through sharing failure and moving towards locally led adaptation
10.30 - 12.00	CS7.2 Resource and land-grabbing in the Global South Chair: Pascale Hatcher University of Canterbury
	Andreas Neef	Coastal grabbing by extractive industries in the south pacific: the case of Fiji
	Steven Kolova	Dilemmas of aid and challenges of development: Chinese aid to Bougainville
	Glenn Banks	Mining and inequality – moving from correlation to rationalisation in the pacific
	Gillian Gregory	COVID-19 and the extractivist agenda in Colombia
	Sochanny Hak	Land grabbing and women: reflection of norms and policies of Bunong women land rights
	Pascale Hatcher & Nicola Haley	Extractivism for ‘development’? Exploring the narrative of deep-sea mining in the pacific
10.30 - 12.00	CS7.4 Livelihoods and development Chair: Michael Lyne Lincoln University
	Hazel Antonio	The factors affecting the marketing channel choices of rice farmers using a mixed methods approach
	Jared Berends	Applying systems thinking to upgrade pro-poor agri-food value chains in Myanmar

Randel Esnard	Creating novel producer groups to upgrade food value chains in Myanmar
Caihuan Duojie	Livelihoods and capitalization: the caterpillar fungus economy in Tibetan area
Séverine Bouard	Eight years after: meet the same households to measure the impact of development on livelihoods
Denis Griffin	Individual versus group loans and the formation of social, human and economic capital
10.30 - 12.00	CS7.4 Development management
Chair: Gerard Prinsen Te Kunenga ki Pūrehuroa / Massey University
Tony Binns	‘Transforming Freetown’: dilemmas of planning and development in a West African city
Justina Ayogu	Influence of forest governance strategies on sustainable forest management in Nigeria
Joe Clifford	Jokowi’s reinvention of mutual aid in Indonesia: Gotong Royong’s enduring legacy
H. Unnathi S. Samaraweera	Gaps and challenges identified in flood relief assistance in Sri Lanka
Arunima Das	Donor influence on NGO activism in Bangladesh: interrogating the deficit victim narrative of Bangladeshi women
12.00	Lunch & DevNet Forum
13.00	Plenary session: Great debate
14:00 - 15.15	Concurrent sessions 8
14:00 - 15.15	CS8.1 What is the future of volunteering for development?
Chair: Sharon McLennan Te Kunenga ki Pūrehuroa / Massey University
Sharon McLennan
Johanna Thomas-Maude	“They come because they know the teachers are gringos”: English voluntourism in Lima, Peru
Ryley Webster	Volunteer Services Abroad
Annika Tierney Lemisio	Nuanua O Le Alofa National Advocacy Organisation for Persons with Disabilities, Samoa
14:00 - 15.15	CS8.2 Regenerative and Diverse Economies for resilient communities
Chair: Kelly Dombroski Te Whare Wananga o Waitaha / University of Canterbury
Jenny Cave	Recasting ‘development’ for regenerative economies
Kelly Dombroski	Inventory as ethical action: an introduction to diverse economies
Kathy Gibson	New ‘developments’ in diverse and community economies

Dean Stronge	Measuring wellbeing in a wellbeing economy
Tiffany Arthur	Impacts of the recognised seasonal employment scheme on village development in Samoa: the case study of Poutasi village
14:00 - 15.15	CS8.3 Education for development
	Chair: Luke Kiddle Victoria University of Wellington
Annaleigh Corlett	Upim Tilapia: upskilling tilapia farmers in rural Solomon Islands
Marc Patterson	Indigenous multilingual education capabilities in Vhembe, South Africa
Luke Kiddle	Development education in New Zealand schools: time for new focus?
Hilary Smith	Well-being through indigenous language revival: a community development project in Australia
Naiyer Fatema Khanom	The new normal and skills development for SDGs
14:00 - 15.15	CS8.4 Decoloniality in Development Studies in Aotearoa
	Chair: Yvonne Underhill-Sem
Yvonne Underhill-Sem	The University of Auckland
Cathy Bolinga	The University of Auckland
Ashraful Alam	University of Otago
Tony Binns	University of Otago
Regina Scheyvens	Te Kunenga ki Pūrehuroa / Massey University
Api Movono	Te Kunenga ki Pūrehuroa / Massey University
	Ways forward
15.15 - 16.00	Rapporteurs report back on key 'take aways' from the conference Student & social media awards, Closing